About OPAPP

The Office of the Presidential Adviser on the Peace Process or OPAPP is the office mandated to oversee, coordinate, and integrate the implementation of the comprehensive peace process. The agency was created through Executive Order No. 125, s. 1993 which was later amended in 2001 with the signing of Executive Order No. 3, s. 2001 as a reaffirmation of the government's commitment to achieving a just and lasting peace through a comprehensive peace process.

THE THREE PRINCIPLES of the Comprehensive Peace Process

The comprehensive peace process shall continue to be governed by the following underlying principles:

- A. A comprehensive peace process should be community-based, reflecting the sentiments, values and principles important to all Filipinos. Thus, it shall be defined not by the government alone, nor by the different contending groups only, but by all Filipinos as one community.
- B. A comprehensive peace process aims to forge a new social compact for a just, equitable, humane and pluralistic society. It seeks to establish a genuinely pluralistic society, where all individuals and groups are free to engage in peaceful competition for predominance of their political programs without fear, through the exercise of rights and liberties guaranteed by the Constitution, and where they may compete for political power through an electoral system that is free, fair and honest.
- C. A comprehensive peace process seeks a principled and peaceful resolution to the internal armed conflicts, with neither blame nor surrender, but with dignity for all concerned.

The Six Paths to Peace

The components of the comprehensive peace process comprise the processes known as the "Paths to Peace". These component processes are interrelated and not mutually exclusive, and must therefore be pursued simultaneously in a coordinated and integrated fashion.

They shall include, but may not be limited to, the following:

- A. Pursuit Of Social, Economic And Political Reforms
This component involves the vigorous implementation of various policies, reforms, programs and projects aimed at addressing the root causes of internal armed conflicts and social unrest. This may require administrative action, new legislation or even constitutional amendments.
- B. Consensus-Building And Empowerment For Peace
This component includes continuing consultations on both national and local levels to build consensus for a peace agenda and process, and the mobilization and facilitation of peoples participation in the peace process.
- C. Peaceful Negotiated Settlement With Different Rebel Groups
This component involves the conduct of face-to-face negotiations to reach a peaceful settlement with the different rebel groups. It also involves the effective implementation of peace agreements.
- D. Programs For Reconciliation, Reintegration Into Mainstream Society And Rehabilitation
This component includes programs to address the legal status and security of former rebels, as well as community-based assistance programs to address the economic, social and psychological rehabilitation needs of former rebels, demobilized combatants and civilian victims of the internal armed conflicts.
- E. Addressing Concerns Arising From Continuing Armed Hostilities
This component involves the strict implementation of laws and policy guidelines, and the institution of programs to ensure the protection of non-combatants and reduce the impact of armed conflict on communities found in conflict areas.
- F. Building And Nurturing A Climate Conducive To Peace
This component includes peace advocacy and peace education programs, and the implementation of various confidence-building measures.
